4. It was decided that faculty members of the unit who had obtained the title of Associate Professor would share their experiences regarding the associate professorship process as an experience-sharing activity. It was further decided that the session entitled “Important Considerations in Associate Professorship Applications” would be held on June 16, 2026, at 14:30 in Amphitheater 2 of Yalova University Faculty of Medicine, and would be delivered by Dr. Mutlu Muhammed Özbek, Faculty Member of the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.
5. It was decided that a poster would be prepared and announced for the promotion of the session entitled “Important Considerations in Associate Professorship Applications.”
6. In order to support academic development within the faculty, it was decided that a “Statistics Training” program for faculty members would be organized by the Yalova University Continuing Education Center. The session was scheduled to be delivered by Associate Professor Dr. Cem Gürler in the Faculty of Medicine Conference Hall on May 5, 2026, at 13:00.
7. It was decided that an online survey would be created and distributed to assess the satisfaction levels of faculty members who participated in the “Statistics Training” organized by the Yalova University Continuing Education Center and to collect their feedback regarding the session.

The meeting concluded with the section for wishes and recommendations.
